

Public television Texas travel series to kick off Sunday in Waco

By Carl Hoover

"Daytrippers," a half-hour Texas travel series started by Austin public television station KLRU, will debut a statewide version Sunday afternoon, April 18, with a viewing party at Waco's Elite Circle Grille. The party, with barbecue, will start at 12:30 p.m. with the program screened at 1:30 p.m.

The first episode highlights Waco, with host Chet Garner, a Baylor Law School grad, visiting Health Camp, Cameron Park's mountain bike trails, the Dr Pepper Museum, George's Restaurant, Baylor University, Poppa Rollo's Pizza and more. Upcoming episodes will feature Garner visiting Bastrop, Burnet, Luling, Shiner and Fredericksburg.

KWBU will broadcast "The Daytripper" at 1:30 p.m. Sundays and 10 p.m. Fridays. Time Warner Cable customers also can access it on Central Texas on Demand, cable channel 200.

Online episodes are available here at thedaytripper.com.